

IP08A Buddy - Features & Benefits

Feature	Benefit
Wireless technology	No tubing connecting the two units, making installation costs minimal with no issues of water or other debris blocking the units and affecting use Considerable range between units - can be placed up to 200m apart
Secure technology	All electronics are internal thus protected from the elements and vandalism No interference from other devices
Accessible/Ease of use	Set at optimum height for wheelchair user and age range Roller ball handle best for those with poor manual dexterity and very easy to turn No barriers – ground level access
Turning handle	Requires children to 'do something' and be active at regular intervals Gives children an understanding of how power is generated (educational)
Communication tool	Encourages interaction and communication breaks down social barriers Incorporates an induction loop for the hard of hearing
Stainless Steel post /HDPE casing	Ease of maintenance

Inclusive Play (UK) Ltd
 14 Swanston Steading, 109 Swanston Road, Edinburgh, EH10 7DS
 Tel: 0844 4990214 Fax: 0131 445 7980 Email: info@inclusiveplay.com

www.inclusiveplay.com